

Vienna, December 2024

Job Posting - National Team Head Coach Rowing Austrian Rowing Federation (ÖRV)

The Austrian Rowing Federation (ÖRV) is looking for a dedicated and qualified National Team Head Coach who will recognize and build upon the federation's existing success system while ensuring the continued development of Austrian rowing at the highest level.

Responsibilities

- Oversee the athletic management and development of the national team
- Collaborate closely with athletes, clubs, and coaching colleagues on national and international levels
- Plan, coordinate, and monitor training activities in cooperation with employed coaches
- Lead, motivate, and develop the coaching team
- Provide technical leadership for training camps and manage teams during national and international competitions
- Ensure open and clear communication with athletes, clubs, and federation structures
- Contribute to the AIROW project, which leverages artificial intelligence and innovative technologies to revolutionize training management and performance optimization in rowing

Requirements

- Extensive experience in rowing, ideally as a coach in olympic elite-level
- Proven expertise in managing and optimizing training systems
- Strong leadership and communication skills
- Willingness to work closely with federation structures and clubs
- International experience in rowing
- High travel readiness and flexibility

What We Offer

- A responsible and exciting role in Austrian rowing
- Collaboration with a motivated and high-performing team
- Support through the federation's professional structures and resources

Mitglied des Österreichischen Olympischen Comités und des Österreichischen Paralympischen Committees

Application

Please submit your detailed application, including a CV, cover letter, and references, by January 31, 2025, to: Austrian Rowing Federation (ÖRV), Email: [office@rudern.at]

We look forward to your application and to advancing Austrian rowing together with you!

ÖSTERREICHISCHER RUDERVERBAND

Note: Applications from women are expressly encouraged. The ÖRV is committed to equality and diversity in all areas. The federation reserves the right to conclude the selection process before the application deadline if a suitable candidate is found.