Lead Coach for Men's Sweep

From March 1st, 2025, initially limited to December 31, 2028. Location: Dortmund

Dortmund is not only where top football is played, it's also where Germany's best male sweep rowers train. Eights, fours and pairs have been forged there for decades. However, continued success needs fresh blood, different approaches and updated training methods. That's why we're looking for you as our new division coach for men's sweep rowing – forming boats like the legendary 'Deutschland-Achter'. Highly motivated rowers, a great team of coaches, a scientific environment and, above all, exciting and fulfilling days that are never the same await you. When does it start? From March 1st, 2025 – apply by January 24th, 2025!

RESPONSIBILITIES ...

- › You will lead and develop the men's sweep training group towards success at the 2028 Olympics in Los Angeles.
- › You will design and refine the training program in coordination with the Head Coach and team coaches.
- › You will coordinate all necessary training, competition and diagnostic measures for men's sweep.
- › You will plan and manage domestic competition, training events and screening measures with the Head Coach.

REQUIREMENTS ...

- › Degree or diploma as a sports scientist, DOSB coaching diploma or comparable international qualifications.
- › Success as a coach at senior international rowing championship level.
- › Organizational talent, leadership skills, empathy, motivational skills and team spirit.
- › Driver's license (including trailer) and motorboat license.

WHAT WE OFFER ...

- › Germany's best sweep rowers in one location.
- › The chance to lead the German eight and other boats back to the top of the world.
- › Short and fast coordination channels: you, your Head Coach and Sports board.
- › Flexible working hours, 36 days of vacation, laptop and cell phone.
- › A presidium and board team that wants the same thing as you: success!
